HOME-A-RAMA

AWARD WINNING BUILDER

MLS# 2760410

Kai Yu Home Builders was one of nine featured builders in the 2007 Lifestyle Home-A-Rama at Stonegate in Zionsville, and our contribution was this beautiful French-style home of classic inspiration that also incorporates today's modern living style. Featuring a stunning limestone entry, rustic brick exterior, and immaculately detailed interior, this home showcases the custom quality of a Kai Yu home.

The main level hosts a large open kitchen facing a breakfast nook, a great room, and sunroom. The second level includes a barrel vaulted hallway ceiling, master suite with private fireplace, three additional bedrooms with private baths, and a laundry room. The lower level features a theater room, billiard/recreation area, pub, and exercise room or 5th bedroom.

This award winning showcase home is nestled within the historically inspired Stonegate development, in the exclusive Northside Community of Zionsville. It is also one of our available spec homes.
